HERITAGE DAYS WEEKEND

This year marks the 20th anniversary of Heritage Days – a countywide festival offering programs and activities appealing to visitors of all ages and interests.

With over 40 free events all around Montgomery County, Heritage Days Weekend is the perfect time to explore local history, culture, and nature. Sites are open from noon to 4pm unless otherwise indicated.

A special focus this year is heritage food traditions with activities including cooking demonstrations – featuring both unique cooking methods and presentations by acclaimed chefs – farm and garden displays, and food trucks. Other programs will highlight Civil War and agricultural history, historic African American communities, the stories of local railroads and trolleys, and much more.

Heritage Days also showcases local arts and culture as well as outdoor recreation, including biking, hiking, and walking tours. Many venues offer musical entertainment, activities and crafts for children, and refreshments!

Celebrate Heritage Days and explore fascinating sites that help make Montgomery County great!

HERITAGE COOKBOOK

As part of Heritage Days Weekend, Heritage Montgomery is pleased to announce the publication of the new African American Heritage Cookbook: Heritage Foodways in Montgomery County, Maryland.

The cookbook contains a collection of authentic historic Maryland recipes dating from the 1700-1800s as well as recipes collected from local church communities representing foods that were served at family and communal gatherings like Homecoming and Juneteenth.

In addition to these recipes, tested and curated by Executive Chef Larkin Rogers, brief histories and firsthand accounts from local residents collected in the 1970s by Dr. George McDaniel are included.

The cookbook will be available for purchase at various Heritage Days sites or by contacting Heritage Montgomery.

HERITAGE AREA THEMES

Rivers, Roads, & Rails: Transportation Trails highlights the C&O Canal along the Potomac River and the Metropolitan Branch of the B&O Railroad running through communities dating back to the late 1800s. Discover historic lockhouses and aqueducts along the canal towpath. Travel scenic byways and historic roads to enjoy hiking, biking, canoeing, sightseeing, and more!

Crossroads & Cultures: African American & Quaker Heritage represents Montgomery County's many rich and diverse cultural histories. These include the long-standing Quaker communities of Sandy Spring and Brookeville and the many early free black communities represented by local churches and preservation groups, community buildings, and cemeteries.

The Agricultural Reserve: Farms, Markets & Scenic Byways encompasses 93,000 acres of protected farmland – one of the most successful countryside preservation programs in the U.S. The “Ag Reserve” showcases beautiful vistas, winding country roads, historic buildings, pick-your-own farms, and farmers markets.

Heritage Gems: Montgomery County's Past features sites scattered throughout the heritage area representing the unique stories of history, culture, and nature found in Montgomery County, from historic houses to Civil War sites to parks, theatres, and historical societies.

Let Heritage Montgomery be your first stop for planning year-round exploration of local history, culture, and nature.

Check out our website at HeritageMontgomery.org. You'll find everything you need to plan your heritage area outings including information on:

- Over 40 Heritage Site destinations
- Parks & Trails – including pet-friendly parks

HERITAGE SPOTLIGHTS

Join us in celebrating Heritage Days' 20th anniversary at over 40 free programs and activities across the county!

Stop by the newly restored Odd Fellows Lodge in Sandy Spring, a cultural center for African Americans in the region from the early 1900s and enjoy jazz music. Hike along the C&O Canal stopping at Seneca Aqueduct/Riley's Lockhouse 24 to learn about the history of the canal and Pennyfield Lockhouse 22 to explore life along the canal in the 1830s. In addition to the heirloom garden and heritage breed animals at Button Farm Living History Center, a professional chef will demonstrate heritage cooking techniques.

The Casey Community Center in Gaithersburg has served the community for 40 years and will celebrate with an open house on Sunday from 10am to noon.

We are especially pleased to have a number of new partners join us for Heritage Days this year. See the event program on the reverse for special activities at each of their sites.

Historic Takoma works to preserve the heritage of Takoma Park, founded as a late-1800s railroad stop, including its historic landmarks and archives. Their offices are located in what was a Piggly Wiggly grocery store in a former life.

The Izaak Walton League's Bethesda-Chevy Chase Chapter is one of over 250 chapters nationwide dedicated to protecting our nation's soil, air, woods, waters, and wildlife. Their Conservation Farm in Poolesville is an excellent example of living resource management and habitat conservation in the county.

The 1817 Quaker Meeting House is home to the Sandy Spring Friends Monthly Meeting which was "settled" in 1753. This community played an important role in the establishment of local free black communities as many Quakers manumitted their slaves as early as the 1770s.

The Audubon Naturalist Society is the oldest independent environmental organization in the Washington, DC region. In addition to its work fostering conservation issues, a wide variety of programs and outdoor activities are offered at the 40-acre Woodend Nature Sanctuary.
