

MARYLAND
EMANCIPATION CELEBRATION

SATURDAY, NOV. 4, 2017

at the

SANDY SPRING SLAVE MUSEUM & AFRICAN ART GALLERY

18524 Brooke Rd., Sandy Spring 20860

Celebrate the freedom of slaves in Maryland with -- a Tour of a Cabin, See a Museum on Slavery, Dance to Songs of the Caribbean Art Form and Watch a Movie on Montgomery County's historic Black Churches!

11:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m. – Sandy Spring Slave Museum is Open.

11am SOCA: Sounds of the Caribbean Art Form
Enjoy calypso, soca, blues and gospel.

1pm A Repeat Performance by SOCA

3p.m. Movie: "Community Cornerstones"
Between the Civil War and the Civil Rights Movement, over 40 African American churches were constructed in Montgomery County. In these cornerstones of their communities, generations of African American families created their own spiritual, social, and educational opportunities. This our-long documentary, produced by Heritage Montgomery, presents reminiscences by elders from 5 of these historic African American churches.

Sponsored with the generous support of the Fetzer Institute
www.Fetzer.org

Maryland slaves were freed by a new state constitution on November 1, 1864

Making Maryland the first of the Civil War slave states to free, by popular vote, those held in bondage within its boundaries.

FOOD: Fish & Chicken
Dinners for Sale

LOCATION: 12 miles north of the 495 Beltway off of Route 650
just 1 mile north of Route 108

PARKING: Parking is available on-site & across the street at the Ross Boddy Community Center.

www.SandySpringSlaveMuseum.org